THE WIRRAL BOROUGH COUNCIL (in this ORDER called "the authority") in pursuance of the powers conferred in that behalf by Section 60 of the TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING Act 1971 and subject to the provisions of the Forestry Act 1967, hereby make the following Order.

1. In this Order-

Provided that where the application relates to any woodland specified in the First Schedule to this Order the authority shall grant consent so far as accords with the principles of good forestry, except where, in the opinion of the authority, it is necessary in the interests of amenity to maintain the special character of the woodland or the woodland character of the area, and shall not impose conditions on such consent requiring replacement or replanting.

Note:-If it is desired to fell any of the trees included in this Order whether included as trees, groups of trees or woodlands and the trees are trees for the felling of which a licence is required under the Forestry Act, 1967, application should be made not to the authority for consent under this Order but to the Conservation of Forests for a licence under that Act. or
- (b) in the case of trees other than trees comprised in woodlands, that the trees have an outstanding or special amenity value.

6.-(1) Where consent is granted under this Order to fell any part of a woodland other than consent for silvicultural thinning then unless-

- (a) such consent is granted for the purpose of enabling development to be carried out in accordance with a permission to develop land under Part III of the Act, or
- (b) the authority with the approval of the Secretary of State dispense with replanting, the authority shall give to the owner of the land on which that part of the woodland is situated a direction in writing specifying the manner in which and the time within which he shall replant such land and where such a direction is given and the part is felled the owner shall subject to the provision of this Order and Section 175 of the Act, replant the said land in accordance with the direction.

(2) Any direction given under paragraph (1) of this Article may include requirements as to-

- (a) species;

- (c) the erection and maintenance of fencing necessary for protection of the replanting;
- (d) the preparation of ground, draining, removal of brushwood, lop and top; and
- (e) protective measures against fire.

8. The provisions set out in the Third Schedule to this Order, being provisions of Part III of the Act adapted and modified for the purposes of this Order, shall apply in relation thereto.

9. Subject to the provisions of this Order, any person who has suffered loss or damage in consequence of any refusal (including revocation or modification) of consent under this Order or of any grant of any such consent subject to conditions shall, if he makes a claim on the authority within the time and in the manner prescribed by this Order, be entitled to recover from the authority compensation in respect of such loss or damage.

Provided that no compensation shall be payable in respect of loss or damage suffered by reason of such refusal or grant of consent in the case of any trees the subject of a certificate in accordance with Article 5 of this Order.

10. In assessing compensation payable under the last preceding Article account shall be taken of:

- (a) any compensation or contribution which has been paid whether to the claimant or any other person, in respect of the same trees under the terms of this or any other Tree Preservation Order under Section 60 of the Act or under the terms of any Interim Preservation Order made under Section 8 of the Town and Country Planning (Interim Development) Act, 1943, or any compensation which has been paid or which could have been claimed under any provision relating to the preservation of trees or protection of woodlands contained in an operative scheme under the Town and Country Planning Act, 1932, and
- (b) any injurious affection to any land of the owner which would result from the felling of the trees the subject of the claim.

11.-(1) A claim for compensation under this Order shall be in writing and shall be made by serving it on the authority such service to be effected by delivering the claim at the offices of the authority addressed to the Clerk thereof or by sending it by prepaid post so addressed.

(2) The time within which any such claim shall be made as aforesaid shall be a period of twelve months from the date of the decision of the authority, or of the Secretary of State, as the case may be, or where an appeal has been made to the Secretary of State against the decision of the authority, from the date of the decision of the Secretary of State on the appeal.

12. Any question of disputed compensation shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 179 of the Act.

13.-(1) The provisions of Section 61 of the Act shall apply to this Order and the Order shall take effect on 13 APRIL 1977

"NOTE: Any person contravening the provisions of this Order by cutting down, uprooting or wilfully destroying a tree, or by wilfully damaging, topping or lopping a tree in such a manner as to be likely to destroy it is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £400 or twice the sum which appears to the court to be the value of the tree, whichever is the greater, or on indictment to a fine. The penalty for any other contravention of this Order is a fine not exceeding £200 on summary conviction and, in the case of a continuing offence when the contravention is continued after conviction, a person is liable on summary conviction to an additional fine not exceeding £5 for every day on which the contravention is so continued.

If a tree other than one to which an Order applies as part of a woodland is removed, uprooted or destroyed in contravention of an Order or is removed, uprooted or destroyed or dies at a time when its cutting down or uprooting is authorised only by section 60(6) of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971 relating to trees which are dying or dead or have become dangerous, it is the duty of the owner of the land, unless on his application the local planning authority dispense with the requirement, to plant another tree of appropriate size and species at the same place as soon as he reasonably can. Except in emergency, not less than 5 days previous notice of the removal, etc., should be given to the authority to enable the latter to decide whether or not to dispense with the requirement".

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1971

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING (TREE PRESERVATION ORDER) REGULATIONS 1969

THE WIRRAL BOROUGH COUNCIL TREE PRESERVATION ORDER (NO 22) 1977

1. I am directed by the Secretary of State for the Environment to refer to the above named order and to the objection by Messrs Tysons (Contractors) Limited to the inclusion therein of some of the trees in area A1.
2. The representations made in support of the objection have been considered together with your Council's observations and an officer of the Department has visited the site.
3. Messrs Tysons Limited have objected to the order on the grounds that some of the trees are dead, dying or in a dangerous condition, one or two being propped up by concrete supporting their boles, others growing as much as 20° from the perpendicular, and that some of the elm trees are showing signs of Dutch Elm disease. They said that they hope to develop the land for residential purposes in the near future and some of the trees will need to be felled so that the development may proceed.
4. The order covers the entire garden of the property known as Ceres, Eleanor Road, Bidston, Wirral. A second dwelling, Lowood, also stands within the garden. The trees include a wide variety of both hardwood and softwood species, and they cover almost the entire garden, which is over 1 acre and slopes steeply down towards the west. Most of the trees are in good condition although there are a few that appear to be dead or dying. In addition there are a number of Lombardy Poplar trees along the western fence line which are at or past maturity and which overshadow and detrimentally dominate other trees in the locality. The whole surrounding area has a well wooded and very attractive appearance.
5. Although objection was raised about the inclusion in the order of certain trees which appear to be dead, dying or dangerous, attention is drawn to section 60(6) of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971 which provides for the treatment of such trees and it is further noted that the Council have stated that any reasonable request for the removal of any other trees would be carefully considered and consent would not be withheld unreasonably.

6. With regard to the question of the site's future development Clause 4(c) of the second schedule to the order provides that the order shall not apply so as to require the consent of the authority to the cutting down, topping or lopping of a tree when this is immediately required for the purpose of carrying out development authorised by a specific planning permission. In the view of the Secretary of State, that provision contains adequate safeguards to prevent the order conflicting with any development of the site which may be permitted following an application for planning permission in the future.

7. Having regard to the above it is considered that the area as a whole, with the exception of the Lombardy Poplars along the western fence line, provides a valuable contribution to the amenity of the district and as such merits statutory protection.

8. For the above reasons the Secretary of State has decided to confirm the order subject to the modification of the order map to exclude all those Lombardy Poplar trees along the western boundary of the site.

9. The modified order is enclosed and attention is drawn to the requirements of Regulation 9 of the Town and Country Planning (Tree Preservation Order) Regulations 1969.

10. Section 245 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971 provides that if a person is aggrieved by an order of a description which includes the present order on the grounds that it is not within the powers of the Act, or that any of the relevant requirements have not been complied with in relation to that order, he may within 6 weeks from the date on which the order is confirmed apply to the High Court to quash the order. The relevant requirements are any requirements of the Act of 1971 or of the Tribunals and Inquiries Act 1971, or of any order, regulations or rules made under either of these Acts which are applicable to this Order. If the application is made on the grounds that any of the relevant requirements have not been complied with it must be shown to the satisfaction of the Court that the interests of the applicant have been substantially prejudiced by a failure to comply with any of the relevant requirements in relation to the order. A similar right of appeal is given by the Section to the local authority directly concerned with the order.

11. A copy of this letter has been sent to Messrs Tysons Limited.

Your obedient Servant
